Program Summary

The College Advising Corps at Brown University will have AmeriCorps members provide college-access advising to high school and community college students in Providence, Pawtucket, Central Falls, Woonsocket, West Warwick, and Newport. Members will support economically disadvantaged youth between high school graduation and college matriculation to decrease incidence of summer ‘melt.’ At the end of the first year, 1,000 students will be accepted to college. Members will also leverage 40 volunteers who will provide coaching and support for students taking college entrance tests. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
